SCOPE OF INQUIRY BROADENED

Foreign Dealings of American Oil Interests to Be Probed.

SENATE ADOPTS DILL PROPOSAL

Aimed at Sinclair, Lessee of Teapot Dome, Who Recently Made Oil Leases In Persia—Denver Attorney Alleged to Have Some Sensational Correspondence Relating to Wyoming Oil Lease.

Washington, Feb. 14.—International dealings of American oil interests are to be investigated.

The senate adopted the resolution of Senator Dill of Washington, calling on the state department for information concerning international activities of American oil men.

It is aimed particularly at Harry F. Sinclair, lessee of Teapot Dome, who recently made oil leases in Persia and who is reported to have been negotiating with German and Russian interests, and Edward L. Doheny, who has Mexican oil.

Senator Walsh of the committee probing the oil leases, received a telegram from D. F. Stackelbach, Denver newspaperman, stating he believed Karl C. Schuyler, Denver attorney, had "some sensational correspondence" relating to the Teapot Dome lease. Walsh also received a telegram from Schuyler in which he requested opportunity to testify.

When the committee resumed its hearings, J. Leo Stack, Denver, said he tried to prevail on Secretary Daniels to lease the naval reserves, but Daniels flatly refused. Stack said his plan was not abandoned, however, because "the incoming administration was practically committed to leasing the lands."

Stack said in the spring of 1920 he led a party of Denver geologists into Teapot Dome. A map was made showing that neighboring wells were draining the reserve, he testified. Then Stack said he went to see Secretary of the Navy Denby, attempting to convince him the leases should be made. Denby refused to commit himself, Stack said.

The Pioneer Oil company has been secretly pressing to get the leases, he said. Pioneer had the advantage, Stack said, because of certain alleged claims to sections in the dome. Doheny became disheartened then and withdrew.

But in order to reward Stack for his work Doheny had the Pioneer, a Standard Oil subsidiary, give Stack a contract giving Stack 5 per cent of any profits if the leases were obtained. As a preliminary advance to Stack for his work, the Pioneer gave him $14,000, he said.

Lenroot questioned Stack about the settlement he and Fred G. Bonfils, publisher of the Denver Post, made with Sinclair by which Sinclair promised to pay them $1,000,000.

Asked by Lenroot about his charge that there was a conspiracy in connection with the lease to Sinclair, Stack said: "I thought that the Pioneer conspired with Sinclair to 'gyp' me out of my interest. The Pioneer said they got $1,000,000 in oil from Sinclair for the claims, but I don't know whether they did or not. They just wanted me to get out of it."

ROCKWELL TO ACT

Will Call Conference of McAdoo Supporters, to Be Held In Chicago.

Cleveland, Feb. 14.—David L. Rockwell will soon call a conference of supporters of William G. McAdoo for the Democratic nomination for president, to be held at Chicago. The meeting, suggested by Mr. McAdoo, will decide whether he should remain in the race for the Democratic presidential nomination, in view of his former legal connection with E. L. Doheny, oil magnate. "If they think I am unavailable," McAdoo said, "I shall gladly withdraw and fight as a private citizen in the ranks; if they think I should lead, I will do so with all the power that is in me."

Supporters of McAdoo from every state will be invited to attend the conference.

Donahey Names Trustee.

Columbus, Feb. 14.—Governor Donahey announced the appointment of Joseph C. Goodman of Columbus as a trustee of the Ohio State Archaeological and Historical society for a term ending Feb. 19, 1927. Mr. Goodman will succed the late Frank L. Packard of Columbus. He is a graduate of Ohio State university and of the Yale law school.

GEN. W. P. BURNHAM

Retires From the United States Army After 46 Years of Service.

CONSTABLES WARNED

Must Not Raid Suspected Places With John Doe Warrants.

Toledo, Feb. 14.—Prosecution of constables who raid places on "John Doe" warrants was threatened by Federal Judge Killitts. "If there is any way possible to prosecute these rascally constables, we will do it," Judge Killitts said.

This declaration came as a result of a report to Judge Killitts that automobiles had been seized by constables and these same cars had not been turned over to the state for confiscation, but used by liquor sleuths.

"I know it to be a fact that certain places have been raided six or seven times by these constables and many times these raids have been conducted with John Doe warrants," the judge said. "The state legislature ought to repeal the commercial feature of the Crabbe act, as this payment of a percentage to constables has been an avenue to a lot of crookedness."

KING TUT'S TOMB CLOSED BY CARTER

Expedition Abandons Work of Exploration in Egypt.

Luxor, Feb. 14.—Howard Carter, head of the expedition conducting explorations into the tomb of Tutankhamen, has closed the tomb and abandoned the work.

Carter's decision came after numerous conflicts with the Egyptian authorities, but his announcement left tourists, workers and others interested in the expedition thunderstruck with amazement.

"Owing to the impossible restrictions and discourtesies on the part of the public works department," Carter's statement read, "all my collaborators have signed a protest and refused to work any longer in the tomb."

The dispute with the government is understood to be due to Carter's attempt to maintain his new copyright agreement with the London Times, an agreement to which both the Egyptian press and the government strongly objected.

Carter's action came after he and his exploring party had reached the very climax of their expedition—the body of the ancient pharaoh.

Change of Venue Refused.

Fayetteville, W. Va., Feb. 14.—Judge J. W. Eary refused a change of venue in the case of C. Frank Keeney, Fred Mooney and William Blizzard on charges growing out of the "armed march" of 1921, against Logan county. The court held that the petition of the defendants had not made out a case that would warrant ordering the change.

Three Burned to Death.

Winnipeg, Man., Feb. 14.—In a fire resulting from the [illegible]sion of kerosene used to light a kitchen range, three daughters of Karl Rickseydler, a farmer in southern Manitoba, were burned to death and five other children severely injured.

Rubber Plant Burned.

Massilon, O., Feb. 14.—Fire starting from an explosion destroyed the two-story frame plant of the Reality Rubber company here, with a loss estimated at approximately $50,000. Paul Miller, an employe, was severely burned.

MOBS ATTACK SEPARATISTS

Bloody Clashes Occur at Pirmasens, Bavarian Palatinate.

SCORES SLAIN OR WOUNDED

Separatist Leader Lynched and Twenty of His Followers Burned to Death In the Town Hall, Where They Had Taken Refuge—Allied Troops Rushed to the Scene to Restore Order—Story of the Rioting.

Berlin, Feb. 14.—More than 50 persons were killed and scores wounded in bloody clashes between separatists and loyalists in Pirmasens, German Palatinate.

Reports state that Herr Schwab, separatist leader, was lynched by a mob of infuriated loyal Germans. Twenty of Schwab's followers were burned to death in the city hall. Evidently the government commissar, who fell into the hands of the mob during the murderous orgy, was manhandled fearfully and then driven back into the furnace-like city hall, where his comrades had taken refuge and were roasting, there to die himself.

Later reports said Schwab, after being beaten almost to death by the mob, "died in the flames." The separatists had taken refuge in the building, which was stormed by the loyal Germans and set on fire.

The trouble began when citizens of Primasens, reinforced by the fire department, started concerted attack upon separatists. Provided with plentiful supplies of ammunition, the separatists rallied and fired heavy volleys, wounding many of the attackers, who were armed with rifles, picks, shovels and axes.

The separatists barricaded themselves in the city hall, a grim old fortress-like place. They held off the attackers until the citizenry, heavily reinforced with city guards, renewed the attack with vicious energy. Firemen flung ladders against the city hall and climbed up in the face of separatists' fire, fighting as they mounted. The attackers could make little progress against the almost impregnable position. Therefore, they set fire to the entire building.

As the dense smoke clouds settled smotheringly through the building many of the separatists fled from the death trap. Twenty, remaining inside, were burned to death.

The mob, now lost to blood lust, launched a city wide hunt for separatists—rooting them out of beds and houses, to meet sharp punishment of death wherever found. The inter-allied commission has sent two companies of infantry to restore order in Pirmasens. A state of siege has been declared in the city and vicinity.

A dispatch said fighting between loyal citizens and separatists also had broken out in Kaisserlautern. French Moroccan troops intervened to protect the French delegate.

JAPAN NEGOTIATES LOAN

American Group of Financiers to Advance Her $150,000,000.

New York, Feb. 14.—A group of American financiers, headed by J. P. Morgan, has just completed negotiations for a loan of $150,000,000 to Japan. The transaction means that Japanese government bonds in this sum will be floated in the United States and certain European continental countries. The money advanced to Japan will, for the most part, return to the United States through direct trade channels, constituting an assured business stimulus during the present year.

Simultaneously with the completion of the loan transaction in New York, a similar loan of 25,000,000 pounds sterling was arranged in England between the Japanese government and a British group of financiers. The combined loans will serve to repair the damage wrought by the earthquakes of 1923 and wipe out standing external obligations.

Strawn's Name May Be Withdrawn.

Washington, Feb. 14.—The name of Silas Strawn as counsel in the oil leasing cases is likely to be withdrawn. It was announced that President Coolidge has decided to take this step if a canvass of the senate public lands committee indicates Strawn's confirmation would not be favorably acted on by the committee. As there is much opposition to Strawn in the committee, withdrawal of his name is believed certain. Allee Pomerene's nomination may be withdrawn at the same time.

DOINGS IN OHIO

Co-ops Legal, Says Crabbe.

Columbus, Feb. 14.—Trustees of Ohio State university are within the law if they choose to continue co-operative stores at the university. Letter to this effect was sent to Dr. W. O. Thompson by Attorney General Crabbe, who had been asked for a ruling as result of a petition by merchants demanding banning of the co-operative projects. "We do not find that the situation presents any new legal questions," Crabbe's letter said, in part, "and the question whether the co-operative stores should be continued is wholly in the province of the trustees."

Body of Boy Found.

Youngstown, O., Feb. 14.—The body of Paul Prologo, 6, was found on a snow covered hill in Lincoln park. Investigation by police showed two deep holes in the boy's temple. He had been badly beaten about the face. Police are working on two theories. One is that the bruises indicate he had been beaten and murdered. Another is that he was run over by an auto and that heavy tire chains may have caused the wounds in his head.

Conviction Set Aside.

Cincinnati, Feb. 14.—A fine of $500 and a jail sentence of six months, imposed by Federal District Judge J. W. Ross against Jacob B. Cohen, editor of the Memphis Labor Review, for an editorial published during 1922 when an injunction was in effect preventing interference with the operation of several railroads, while shopmen were on strike, was set aside by the federal circuit court of appeals here. The entire case was reversed.

Eight Delegates-at-Large.

Columbus, Feb. 14.—Democratic state central committee adopted a resolution providing for eight delegates-at-large to the Democratic national convention, each of the eight to have one-half a vote. Purpose of the resolution is to give women equal representation in the delegation-at-large. The action of the central committee is in accord with recommendations of the Democratic national committee.

Johnson Manager Announced.

Columbus, Feb. 14.—Gerry Cathcart, president and general manager of the Cathcart companies, will head the Twelfth district (Franklin county) organization backing Senator Hiram Johnson for the Republican nomination for president, it was announced here. Local Johnson-for-president headquarters have been opened. Cathcart is a former president of the Buckeye Republican club.

Tells Story of Kidnaping.

Canton, O., Feb. 14.—Authorities are probing a story told by Mary Ramon, a 16-year-old girl, that she and a girl companion had been kidnaped and kept prisoners in a cellar. The girl told police she was taken from the cellar, blindfolded and driven about the city in an automobile, finally being put out on the street. Her companion is still being held prisoner, she said.

"Missing Model" a Bride.

Cincinnati, Feb. 14.—Romance ended the search for Miss Sarah Meyer, 16, local artist's model, missing since Feb. 3. She was married to Corporal Earl P. Nalls, 23, Birmingham, Ala., stationed at Fort Thomas, Ky.

May Be Put Up to Voter.

Zanesville, O., Feb. 14.—Petitions are being circulated here to place the question of the streetcar franchise here up to the voters on an initiative ballot at the April primary. Employes of the company are disturbed because two of the arbiters to adjust their wage differences have failed to agree upon a third party.

MEASURE AIMED AT DAUGHERTY

Failure to Prosecute War Fraud Cases Alleged.

CALLS FOR AN INVESTIGATION

Senator Wheeler Offers Proposal as Substitute For His Resolution Asking For Resignation of the Attorney General—Latter Declares No Person In War Frauds Has Escaped Prosecution Through Agreement.

Washington, Feb. 14.—A resolution calling for investigation of the activities of Attorney General Daugherty in connection with the oil leases, war frauds prosecutions and other matters was introduced in the senate by Senator Wheeler (Dem., Mont.).

The Montana solon already has a resolution before the senate asking for the resignation of Daugherty because of alleged failure to prosecute war fraud cases, those conected with the veterans' bureau investigation and cases brought by the federal trade commission.

The new resolution will substitute the other, Wheeler said. If evidence is discovered in the investigation which warrants it, he will then ask for the resignation of the attorney general, he stated. He said he will push for immediate consideration of his resolution.

"General Daugherty will find this proceeding an entirely different affair from the house investigation during the last congress," Wheeler said. "In my resolution I assert that he has lost the confidence of the country, and I intend to prove it."

Wheeler is serving his first term in the senate. Before coming to Washington he was a United States district attorney in Montana.

Supporting him is the group of La-Follette progressives and scores of Democrats, who think that the senate having heretofore shown its disapproval of Secretary Denby ought now to take similar steps with reference to Daugherty.

A bitter fight is sure to ensue, because Daugherty has many friends among the conservative Republican senators who are ready to fight for him.

In reply to a senate resolution Attorney General Daugherty asserted that no persons involved in war frauds against the government has escaped criminal prosecution through an agreement with the department of justice. On the contrary, Daugherty said, "in each instance in negotiations for settlement of civil liabilities, the defendants were warned that no settlement of any possible criminal liability was involved or contemplated by such civil settlement."

MAY DIE IN SENATE

Bill to Prohibit Betting at Race Tracks Passes Kentucky House.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 14.—The lower house of the Kentucky legislature passed the Bennett bill, which would prohibit pari-mutuel betting at Kentucky race tracks. The vote was 56 to 38. It was the first time such a measure had ever progressed in Kentucky to the point of a decisive legislative action. It now goes to the senate, where unofficial polls have indicated it will lack about nine votes of the necessary majority to pass it.

Opponents of the measure were jubilant over the showing in the house. Under the auspices of an organization formed to secure repeal of the law which permits pari-mutuel betting they had conducted a campaign for more than two years. Proponents of the measure, however, apparently were little disturbed.

Rail Men to Demand Increase.

Cedar Rapids, Ia., Feb. 14.—L. E. Sheppard, president of the Order of Railway Conductors, announced that the chiefs of the four big brotherhoods will meet the executives of western railroads at Chicago in the near future to discuss a new wage scale and proposed changes in basic working rules asked by the roads. Mr. Sheppard said the brotherhoods will renew their demands of last fall for a 12 per cent increase in wages, and will propose rule changes.

Demands Lower "Gas" Price.

Lincoln, Neb., Feb. 14.—"Lower the price of gasoline or we'll fight to nationalize the oil in[illegible]," was the ultimatum delivered by Governor Charles W. Bryan of Nebraska. The militant governor, who smashed down coal prices in Nebraska by purchasing huge quantities of fuel and selling it to the people at cost, charges the existence of a nation-wide conspiracy to gouge the public.

HELD RIDICULOUS

Vanderlip's Implications Draw Reply From Marion Publisher.

Marion, O., Feb. 14.—Roy D. Moore, one of the owners and general manager of the Marion Star, issued this statement on Frank Vanderlip's implications in the latter's speech at Ossining, N. Y.:

"I hesitate to dignify Mr. Vanderlip's Ossining speech, which apparently tries to implicate the sale of the Marion Star with the Teapot Dome scandal, with a denial. If the Teapot bunch could have manipulated the purchase of the Star for $550,000, which was not the price paid for it, they would have found it a very good bargain. But they did not buy it. The controlling interest in the Star was bought by Louis H. Brush and myself as individuals, the Harding estate still holding a large stock interest in the company. Had Mr. Vanderlip taken the trouble to consult the probate court of Marion county and ascertain facts, he would not have made himself so utterly ridiculous."

Funeral of Louise Lawson.

Alvarado, Tex., Feb. 14.—From New York, where she danced with death, Louise Lawson came home to be laid to rest. The "Broadway Butterfly," whose strange slaying still puzzles New York police, will be buried this afternoon in the same plot where her grandparents lie. Hundreds of homefolks who disbelieve the tales of her vivid career in New York paid reverent homage to the memory of Louise. They remember her only as the ambitious little girl who left home to study music in New York.

TO FOLLOW TAX BILL

Ford's Muscle Shoals Offer to Be Taken Up by House.

Washington, Feb. 14.—Republican house leaders are willing to have the house take up Muscle Shoals legislation immediately after the vote is held on the tax bill. The program had called for consideration of the Johnson immigration bill before the McKenzie Muscle Shoals measure.

Representative Longworth, the Republican leader, said that although he and Chairman Snell of the rules committee, after conferring with President Coolidge last Saturday, had predicted that immigration would be given priority over Muscle Shoals, he was now of the belief that it might be wise to reverse this schedule.

Various representatives of farm organizations and individuals, both in congress and out, interested in the Muscle Shoals proposition, have been urging that no time be lost in putting the bill, which calls for acceptance of Henry Ford's bid, to a vote.

Withholds Information.

Columbus, Feb. 14.—Webster M. Smith was fined $100 and costs by Justice Kuhn of Bexley on a charge of withholding information from state prohibition officers. The hearing is an outgrowth of the raid upon the offices of the "Watson Company, Importers," Rowlands building, here, last fall, in which it was alleged that [illegible]mes of many Columbus residents had been buying liquor there obtained.

Ignition of leaking gas is believed to have caused the fire in which the three children of Earl Stone of Bloomer, near Charleston, W. Va., perished. The home was destroyed.

Marine Glue.

Marine glue is prepared by dissolving one part of India rubber in crude benzine and mixing with two parts of shellac, by the aid of heat. The waterproof character of this cement in connection with its elastic flexibility makes it a useful substance in many applications to house construction and to furniture. This glue is applied with ease when warm, and cools with promptness. It was originally intended to be used chiefly on board ship and is well known in Europe.

Fashion Traced to Moreau.

The nick in a coat has been a puzzler to many. It is said to date back to the time of Napoleon. A general named Moreau had many followers, but they were afraid to openly express sympathy with him. It was therefore agreed to put a nick on their coats as a secret sign. The letter M can be seen in the lapel representing the initial letter of the general's name.

WALTER MARION

Made Interesting Address at Chamber of Commerce Meeting.

Walter J. Marion, who has twice been honored with the office of president of the Ohio Vegetable Growers' association, gave a most interesting talk Tuesday evening, February 12, on the possibilities of Pickaway county becoming a vegetable growing center, thru cooperating marketing.

The address was made to the chamber of commerce in the Masonic temple.

"This county," said the speaker, "possesses thousands of acres south and southwest of this city, that is early sandy loam ground which is ideal for vegetable growing.

"The future of vegetable growing is bright. The business is only in its infancy and untold wealth lies at your very doors. The day of big farms has gone by. The cultivation of hay, corn and wheat has become an expensive proposition and in order for the farmer to make a living and lay by a little money, he will have to wake up to the new order of things and raise market vegetables.

"More potatoes are shipped into this state then are raised. We can raise our own potatoes if we plant them; and this is true of other root crops. Up near Cleveland a farmer marketed five thousand bushels of the lowly carrot and he could have sold twice as many as he raised. The state of Maine and Michigan have become widely known as potato raising states and we are nearer the markets than either of the states mentioned.

"Farms in the future will be divided into ten and fifty acre parcels and intensified farming will be the result. Of course, it will be harder work to raise vegetables, but the result will be greater financially. This will come thru cooperative marketing. Vegetable associations will be formed and the grower by abiding by its rules will be the gainer and will become successful in his line of endeavor. This method has been followed successfully in the citrus belts of California and Florida and the vegetable sections of Maine and Michigan."

MUSICAL TREAT

The Columbian quartet to be heard at the Methodist church Sunday and Monday evenings is one of the most remarkable musical organizations in America. For twenty-two consecutive years the personnel has remained unchanged. It is the oldest quartet and concert party, to the man on the platform.

Three of the celebrated members of the party are blind. They received their education and musical training in the Ohio Institute for the Blind at Columbus.

Their repertoire embraces a large collection of vocal and instrumental selections, ranging from the popular hits of the day to the classic works of the old masters, which make the audience cry with laughter. Their old time melodies never fail to touch responsive chords.

Their programs have the special merit of variety seldom heard by any quartet, consisting of vocal quartets, trios, duets and solos, instrumental, quartets, using violin, flute piano and cello violin flute duets, violin solos, piano and flute solos, piano duets.

The Sacred concert Sunday evening will be free to the public. An offering will be received. The admission Monday night is 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children of school age under twelve years. The quartet comes here under the auspices of the Junior department of the Methodist Sunday school and the proceeds will be used to buy hymn books for that department.

AMUSEMENTS

William B. (Bat) Masterson, who never ceased to be a hero to those who knew him and who was regarded by William S. Hart as the ideal type of fine American, has been immortalized on the screen. The man whose writings on sport topics in The Morning Telegraph in New York were of his death in 1922, will be shown in read all over the world up to the time "Wild Bill Hickock," the first of the new series of pictures to be made by the famous gunman for Famous Players-Lasky and which will be the feature at the Met theater tonight.

William S. Hart in the Paramount Picture 'Wild Bill Hickok'

Mr. Masterson, famous frontiersman marshal and sporting authority, always welcomed the visits of William S. Hart, whom he considered one man who really knew how to shoot and ride. Mr. Hart, on the other hand, never failed to visit The Morning Tele graph and swap stories of the old days when "men were men."

On one of the Mr. Hart's visits some one brought in a photographer and the two men were photographed together, a picture that is highly prized by Mr. Hart and by others to whom Mr. Masterson gave the photograph. It is an excellent likeness of both men.

The story of "Wild Bill Hickok" is an original by Mr. Hart himself and deals with the fighting, riotous period of Western American history from 1866 to 1872. In addition to Mr. Masterson many other famous characters of the period are brought in, including Wyatt Earp, Chalk Beeson, Charles Basset, Bill Tighlman, Luke Short, Doc Holliday and the most popular woman of that time, "Calamity Jane." Mr. Hart devoted two years of his retirement from the screen to do research work on the pioneer history of the United States, and it is from this material he has taken his color and atmosphere.

Valuable Discovery.

A California chemist is said to have discovered a process by which platinum is extracted from the ore which also yields gold and silver. The result is that one company which formerly worked the material for gold and silver alone, recovering $40 a ton of material, is now getting $2,400 a ton in gold, silver and platinum.

LEGION EXPECTS VERY BUSY YEAR

The National Rehabilitation committee of the American Legion anticipates 1924 as a most active year, according to the views of Legion officials and others interested in service work performed by the veterans' organization. The work will be under the guidance of Watson B. Miller, formerly national vice-commander of the organization, who has accepted the chairmanship of the rehabilitation committee, and who has given up his law practice during that time in order to perform this service for the World war veterans.

Anticipated work of the Legion's committee this year resolves itself into approximately six general classifications. While the so-called "Service Division" of the organization at national headquarters has been closed in accordance with the mandates of the fifth national convention, and all claims will be handled through the committee in Washington, there are certain other definite phases of the work, particularly legislative, which face the committee.

Further decentralization of the United States veterans' bureau is one of the principal Legion aims during the year. Director Hines has already announced a similar policy in regard to many of the recommendations of the organization, and further suggestions are expected in this direction. Completion of the hospital building program is another step which will be urged. A bill already introduced in congress at the instance of the Legion asks that an additional $5,000,000 be appropriated to rush these projects to completion. General liberalization of many bureau rulings, especially those affecting admission to the government hospitals will be sought.

One of the points to be urged will be the increase of dependency compensation for widows and children of deceased ex-service men, on which special legislation is expected at an early date.

Extension of hospitalization privileges to all ex-service men, without regard to origin of the diseases or disability, as resulting from or by war, said to be favored by veterans' bureau officials will, however, become the principal objective of the Legion's committee.

Big Rush to Renew Legion Membership

Membership of the American Legion shows a great quickening of interest, Lemuel Bolles, national adjutant of the organization has declared, after reviewing the rapid renewal of membership for 1924. Figures in the hands of the officials of the organization, indicate that renewals are 35 per cent greater than in any previous year, which fact is taken as a sign of a healthy condition.

Mr. Bolles has said that such an increase is due primarily to the opposition to the demands of ex-service men for adjusted compensation, which, he says, has only served to unify the veterans that their request may be heeded. He says that charges to the contrary are unfounded and only inspired by designing persons who seek to discredit the Legion because of its program.

One indication of the increased interest, according to the Legion man, is the unusual sales made by the division which handles official jewelry for the organization. In two weeks prior to Christmas, the sales of this division exceeded by more than three times, those of the previous year. Another sign taken by the national officials as a splendid forecast, is the rapid filling of the "Five Hundred Clubs" of posts which boast of more than 1,000 members. These clubs include only the first five hundred men to pay their dues, and without exception, all memberships were filled before January 1, 1924.

Kept an Eye on "Yanks"

A Communist demonstration in France, made against French World war veterans failed to disturb an American Legion color guard which headed the procession of veterans. A Franco-American patriotic celebration at Choisy-le-Roi, near Paris, was the occasion for a parade, which was headed by the Paris American Legion color guard, bearing the United States emblem. Communists started to stone those in the parade, but confined their efforts to the French section, not caring to risk the grim-faced "Yanks" in their steel helmets, who marched with fixed bayonets at the head of the procession.

Relief for Hero's Family

The widow and children of the most distinguished soldier of Wakefield, Mass., of the World war, are not public charges today, only because of timely assistance brought by Corp. Harry E. Nelson post of the American Legion. The post was named for the husband and father, who was the first Wakefield man to be awarded the Distinguished Service Cross, and who died a year ago from his war wounds. Recently it was found that his family was in need, so the post instituted a campaign of relief which brought immediate response from the townspeople.

"On-to-Paris" Club

The desire to hold the 1928 convention of the American Legion in Paris, France, will not down. A recent example of this is the "On-to-Paris" club formed in Wabash, Ind., by Legionnaires, who are depositing $1 each week until 1928. This money may be withdrawn only in case of sickness or death.

LESSON FOR FEBRUARY 17

JOSHUA AND THE CONQUEST OF CANAAN

LESSON TEXT—Josh. 1:1-9; 23:1-3.
GOLDEN TEXT—Not one thing hath failed of all the good things which the Lord your God spake concerning you.—Josh. 23:14.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Lessons From the Life of Joshua.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Joshua and the Conquest of Canaan.

The book of Joshua, from which our lesson is taken, is a history of the conquest of the Promised Land and its apportionment among the tribes of Israel. It takes its name from its principal character, Joshua. During the wilderness journey he was Moses' minister and captain of his army. When Moses was denied the privilege of going over the Jordan, Joshua was appointed to the leadership of Israel. Moses, the representative of the law, brought Israel to the borders of Canaan. Joshua was the man chosen to lead the people into the place of rest. The name, "Joshua", has the same derivation as the name "Jesus".

I. Joshua's Call (Josh. 1:1, 2).

Moses was dead, but God's work must go on. The work was continued by calling Joshua to take it up. Joshua, no doubt, was sorrowful over the loss of his master, but there was now no time for mourning.

II. God Renews His Promise of the Land to Israel (Josh. 1:3, 4).

This promise had been given to Abraham and renewed to Isaac, Jacob and Moses. It is now renewed to Israel when they are about to enter upon its possession. The borders of the land were "from the wilderness and this Lebanon even unto the great river, the river Euphrates, all the land of the Hittites and unto the great sea toward the going down of the sun" (v. 4). The nearest it was ever possessed was during the reigns of David and Solomon, though not then fully realized. This land still belongs to the Jews and in God's own time they shall possess it. Their possession of this land was due entirely to themselves. God promised them that wherever their feet set upon the land, it was theirs. If they failed to secure possession, it was because they failed to claim it.

III. God's Presence Promised to Joshua (Josh. 1:5).

Joshua was entering upon a perilous and difficult enterprise, but the Lord said, as He was with Moses so He would be with him. The difficulties before him were:

1. The Jordan River (v. 2). This river was now at its flood (Josh. 3:15), making it impossible for armies to cross.

2. The People Were Living in Walled Cities (Num. 13:38). Notwithstanding this, God is ready to insure success. (1) "I will not fail thee, nor forsake thee" (v. 5). (2) "There shall not any man be able to stand before thee" (v. 5). (3) "As I was with Moses, so will I be with thee." Joshua had been with Moses throughout their forty years' experience, from the Egyptian deliverance to the time of his death. Because he believed that God was with his master, he was willing and ready to cross Jordan at its flood and courageously meet the enemies on the other side.

IV. Conditions of Blessings in the Land (Josh. 1:6-9).

1. "Be Strong and of Good Courage" (v. 6). His mission was to go in and divide the land among the tribes for an inheritance. It required strength and courage to do this.

2. Unwavering Obedience to the Word of God (v. 7). In a land of idolatry it required much courage to be true to God. Prosperity and success are conditioned upon unswerving obedience to God's commands. In all his work he must conform his life to the law of God. To pass from the path outlined therein would bring disaster and ruin. In order to accomplish this, the law of the Lord must be in his mouth continually. He was to meditate therein day and night. Joshua rendered prompt obedience. He did not stop to cavil, but at once gave orders for the march. God made the plan and gave the directions.

V. Joshua's Retrospect (Josh. 23:1-3).

As his life was now drawing to a close, he summoned the people and rulers to give some farewell counsels.

1. Rehearses God's Goodness (v. 1). God had given rest unto Israel from all their enemies.

2. All That Had Happened Was Done by the Lord. God had fought for them. No one had been able to stand against them; therefore He urges upon them fidelity.

God's Way.

I find my Lord Jesus cometh not in the precise way that I lay wait for Him. He hath a manner of His own. Oh, how high are His ways above my ways!—Rutherford.

With God.

Give God the blossom of your life! Put Him not off with the fallen leaves! —Nicholls.

Be Obliging.

We cannot always oblige, but we can always speak obligingly.—Voltaire.

Hawaiian Customs

Many of the old Hawaiian customs are being discarded; but surf-riding and surf-canoeing are as popular today as ever they were.

Hawaiian serenaders often wander down the beaches and street, playing and singing in the inimitable Hawaiian way. Tileaving, or tobogganning down grassy slopes on slick leaves is another thoroughly Hawaiian custom. Luas, or Hawaiian feasts; and hukilaus, or pulling in the great fish nets, are often arranged for the edification of the visitors.

No prettier or more touching custom may be witnessed than that of placing leis, or wreaths of flowers, around the necks of arriving or departing relatives or friends.

These are practically the only distinctly Hawaiian customs remaining in general use today.—F. M. Halton in Adventure Magazine.

Lucy Page Gaston, 63, founder of the Anti-Cigaret League of America, was struck by a streetcar in Chicago and severely injured.

Blunders of Novelists.

Baroness Orczy, in "Petticoat Government," makes the crescent moon rise over the far eastern sky at 11 o'clock on a June evening; and Miss Stevens, in "The Veil," credits her full moon with rising and setting in less than three hours! Why Frankfurt.

King Carl the Great (Charlemagne) was once defeated by the Saxons, and fled with his Franks to the Main. But they could find no fording place by which to escape the pursuit of their enemies. Suddenly a cart appeared and made for a spot where it crossed easily, thus showing the Franks where the river was fordable. So they came across the Main, and the place has ever since been called "Frankfurt" (the ford of the Franks).

MILLIONS USE NATIONAL FORESTS FOR RECREATION

The extent to which the national forests are being used for recreational purposes is shown by the fact that well over 6,000,000 persons visited the forests during 1922, says Col. W. B. Greeley, chief of the forest service, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, in his annual report. In 1917, the first year records of the number of persons visiting the national forests were compiled, slightly more than 3,000,000 visitors recorded. In 1922 this figure stood at over 6,000,000, thus showing a doubling in the number of visitors to the forests in six years. All indications point to a continued increase for the future, the report states.

"The use of the national forests for recreation is in all respects deserving of encouragement," the report says. "It means for no small part of the country's population a valuable opportunity and privilege. Properly provided for, recreational use will add valuable elements to our national life without seriously impairing the capacity of the forests to create wealth or render other public services."

One of the important duties of officers of the forest service, the report continues, is the protection of game animals and fish, two resources of the forests which are closely related to the use of forested areas as recreation grounds.

"The wild life resources of the national forests," it continues, "must be administered, fostered and utilized much as are the timber and forage resources. The cost of this activity in common with providing facilities for recreation and conserving the sources of water, will never be recovered in the form of commercial receipts, but is justified by the valuable public service which the national forests can thus contribute.

"More game refuges and fish-breeding streams and ponds should be set aside to provide for protected breeding to meet the rapidly increasing use of the forests for recreational purposes, careful consideration must be given to available food supplies for the desirable animals, and a system of regulated use devised that will prevent depletion of all wild life."

Armless Preacher Bags 2 Wild Turkeys in Day

The noted Baptist preacher winged his gobbler near Hobgood. Prior to plucking his turkeyship from the skies the clergyman downed another, but he did not boast of his sportsmanship in bagging the first. Evidently he gumshoed the bird. In getting two wild turkeys in one day he turned a feat in sportsmanship that any sharpshooter in the National Guard would have been glad to match. The former president of Meredith college, whose arms were lost when a boy, is a dead shot with a hammerless breach loader and a string tied to a trigger pulled by his teeth. It is doubtful if his match is on the earth.—Greensboro (N. C.) Daily News.

Airplane Beacon Light Illuminates Square Mile

Two airplanes made test flights at night recently in a portion of Mitchel Field, L. I., which was illuminated by an electric beacon of French manufacture which Maj. William N. Hensley, Jr., commandant of the field, characterized as the greatest single achievement in the promotion of night flying.

The beacon gives a diffused light of high power over an area of about a mile square. Houses in Hempstead, a mile and a half away, were clearly visible to observers at the flying field. The device itself is about the size of a hogshead and is of 5,000,000,000 candle-power. Its light is so bright as to make night baseball games possible. Representatives of the air mail service watched the test.

Heirs in Quarrel Over Gold in "Land Bank"

When the will of Mrs. Pharris was filed for probate, it related that her grandfather buried $35,000 on his farm in two caches, one in Atchison and the other near Superior, Nebraska.

Three heirs to the estate of Mrs. Mary Pharris of Atchison, Kas., sought to establish claims to $35,000 in gold near Superior, Neb., leaving a chart describing the location. Mrs. Pharris said in 1914 she located the treasure and exhumed $12,000 which she believed was her share. She said she left the remainder and buried the $12,000 at the end of Fifth street in Atchison.

Mrs. T. B. Smith, Superior, Neb.; Mrs. Estelle Polk and Mrs. Lillian Lindsel, of Leavenworth, claimed the money. Mrs. Smith said Mrs. Polk had secretly withdrawn $3,800 from the Superior "land bank." Mrs. Polk denied getting the money.

West African Superstition.

In West Africa it is not unusual to see a native crouched over a stream talking to the "Spirit of the Water," and in that country, too, the traveler is unwise who looks behind him at any sudden sound, for he will probably behold a native with the Fangaree charm, and will see him beat with a bamboo hammer upon a tiny drum held above a live animal. As the traveler looks around the charm is struck, and it is the belief of the natives that, whatever part of the animal is injured, the human victim will suffer in the same region.

GREATEST BAZAAR EVER HELD IN THIS CITY

now I'll get results

That's the way every man to whom we sell a Buckeye Incubator talks—and he gets them too, every time. If you expect to make your poultry pay, come in and let us show you the Buckeye Incubator. Then you talk to some of the people to whom we've sold these wonderful machines. They'll tell you, you can only expect Buckeye results with a genuine Buckeye—perfect hatches of big husky chicks—seldom a cripple or weakling, 65 to 600-egg capacity. Chicks that die in the shell come out of your profits. Get the machine that hatches them all.

And Raise Them with a Buckeye Colony Brooder

Grow three chicks where one grew before. No crowding, no chilling, none of the ordinary chick ailments. All sizes, burning coal, oil or gas. Come in and see our wonderful stock of Buckeyes today.

Not Gentle Enough.

One day while entering a street car I met a boy friend of mine, also getting on. Thinking he would be polite enough to pay my fare, I walked in and took a seat. A few moments later the conductor tapped me on the shoulder and said: "Miss, you are no exception."—Exchange.

Teaching Music to the Young.

Children are now taking in the musical work in the Roman choirs as early as seven years of age, says a writer in the Etude in discussing the importance of early training in music for church purposes. They are not merely taught in the music they are to sing, but are given a very thorough drill in solfeggio, and, when necessary, at the proper time in harmony and in music in general.

EXCELLENT DRILL TEAM.

The drill put on by the Pythian Sisters, of Pleasantville ,at the opening night of the fiftieth anniversary of Philos lodge, deserves more than ordinary mention. DOKEY BAND

Made Big Hit at Grand Opera House—Good Vaudeville.

Ninety members of the big Dokey band, members of the dramatic order of the Knights of the Kohrasson, the auxiliary of the Knights of Pythias, came down in two special cars from Columbus Wednesday evening, February 13, to assist in the celebration of the fiftieth or golden anniversary of the founding of the Philos lodge in this city. Seventy members of the order also accompanied the band.

The band and members of the Dokey order gave a fine parade and in the line were the knights and the lady members of the Philos lodge Knights of Pythias. The procession formed on South Court street and marched north to the Grand opera house where a concert and vaudeville was given by the band organization. To say the concert was good is superfluous, as our own Professor John H. Gill, a former townsman, is the band's leader. The vaudeville stunts were excellent and the entertainment was most creditable. The Dokey organization is always welcome in Circleville.

"The House of Kuppenheimer."

When baby needs a pair of shoes, I wonder what store ma will choose, for that partic'lar size! When father must dress up his folks, in Easter hats or all-wool cloaks, who wins this gladsome prize? What lucky dealer gets the cash that people spend for plows and hash; for clocks and luscious pies? Just look these very columns o'er you'll find an ad from every store that's owned by Tradesmen wise. They offer things you want to buy at prices low for values high, their goods delight the eyes. Their plan's not new; they learned the trick when Pharaoh had but just one brick---"Be Prudent--Advertise."

CONFIDENCE

The most beautiful of all human relationships are based on CONFIDENCE. Love is based on confidence, friendship is based on confidence, happy marriages are based on confidence; and so, confidence is the highest aim a business institution can achieve, because it introduces into the processes of buying and selling, something of the unselfish quality of those sacred human relationships that are untouched and uncontaminated by money. This store never wants to be guilty of such bad taste as to claim perfection, but it makes no secret of its ambition to foster and deserve at all times the confidence of its customers.

There is no higher success than TO BE BELIEVED IN!
